

Greetings young squires and noble children of the North Branford Kingdom!

This week's Imagine It Quests: July 13th with Duchess Debbie at the Royal Smith Library

Information is available on our weekly scroll on our website:

<https://nbranfordlibraries.org/kids/summer-reading/>

You can also email us at: childrensroom@nbranfordlibraries.org to register, post photos or for more information.

The scroll will have the royal schedule of events.

To prepare for each event this week you will need the following supplies:

Majestic Monday - We will use our flat prince or princess to post a picture on the North Branford Public Libraries FB page or email it to us at the above address.

Tinkering Tuesday - Seed Germination and Flower Nature Walk with Imaginary Empty Pot - (Supplies: Seeds, paper towel, water/spray bottle, glass or clear plastic jar/cup - cardboard, paper, pencil)

Wellness Wednesday - Wear comfortable clothes for simple loving kindness meditation and breathing exercises.

Thoughtful Thursday - We will work on our Stuck in Our Castle bingo game.

*Learn how to make a nature journal with 2 paper lunch bags, scrap paper, yarn or string, paper punch, scissors, and marker.

 Also this week - The Whitney Water Center Virtual Summer Program - Water Art - 10:00 AM (Call or email to join us on Zoom.) Book - Color Dance by Ann Jonas. You will need: drawing paper, paint brush, rinse water, watercolor paint, and eraser.

Fun Friday - Painted pots. You will need 2 small empty clay pots, acrylic paint, cotton swabs, paint brush, acrylic paints (including yellow and black for a bumble bee), rinse water, and paper towels.

Imagine Your Story crafts packets and handouts: find these on a table in front of the Atwater and Smith Libraries. Beginning July 13th the packet will have supplies for wooden spoon puppets.

We look forward to many fun adventures on our Imagine Your Story Summer Reading Quest!
